Biodiversity net gain

Paragraph 13 of Schedule 7A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 sets out that every planning permission granted for the development of land in England shall be deemed to have been granted subject to the 'biodiversity gain condition' requiring development to achieve a net gain of 10% of biodiversity value.

This is subject to exemptions, an exemption applies in relation to planning permission for a development which is the subject of a householder application, within the meaning of article 2(1) of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order (2015)*.

Applicants for planning permission are required to make a statement as to whether they believe the biodiversity gain condition will apply if permission is granted, please confirm:

☒ It is my belief that if permission is granted for the development to which this application relates the biodiversity gain condition would not apply

*A 'householder application' means an application for planning permission for development for an existing dwellinghouse, or development within the curtilage of such a dwellinghouse for any purpose incidental to the enjoyment of the dwellinghouse which is not an application for change of use or an application to change the number of dwellings in a building.

Details of the pre-application advice received

I am writing to you further to your enquiry received on the 16 December 2024 regarding the above address.

From the information you have provided and following my research of the planning history, the Planning Permission under which your property was built 24260_4 included a condition which states:-

Condition 4:

Notwithstanding the provisions of any Town and Country Planning General Development Order, no building or structure permitted by Class I.1 (and/or) I.3 of the First Schedule of the order shall be erected without the prior written consent of the Local Planning Authority.

Therefore, following the removal of permitted development I am of the opinion planning permission would be required for the installation of Solar Panels on the roof slope as this would be considered an alteration to the dwellinghouse.

Authority Employee/Member

Authority Employee/member

With respect to the Authority, is the applicant and/or agent one of the following:

- (a) a member of staff
- (b) an elected member
- (c) related to a member of staff
- (d) related to an elected member

It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.

For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.
