Hi Jeff,

I have just had a look at the details on the file after receiving the reconsultation below. I can see no new information in relation to the matters I raised in my first comments (in particular flood risk and sequential test; summertime transport conditions or habitats). On this basis I have no further update to offer on my initial comments.

Please do let me know if I am missing something that you consider may require an update to the Policy Comments.

Best wishes

Jacqueline Boulter
