Dear Ms. Richardson,

Planning Application APP/23/00187 Unit 1, Victoria Road and 234 London Road, Waterlooville, PO7 7ET

Thank you for your consultation. Whilst the site lies within an area that is likely to contain archaeological potential, the lack of previous archaeological investigations means that records held for the immediate vicinity of the site are limited. However, in this instance it is clear that previous development and land use have created below ground impacts across the site. Viewing the site from Rockville Drive, there is a distinct change in levels, with the site set lower than the surrounding area. The site therefore has lost its historic topography (likely through levelling of the site ahead of development) and has had its archaeological potential compromised. On this basis, I do not wish to raise any archaeological issues.

Yours sincerely,
