

I write following the submission of further details of the above application.

The small changes to windows that have been made, will not have any effect on the overlooking issues on my property or the overdevelopment/massing issues in my original submission.