

Hello Selina

If the works are further from the trees and there are no other trees in the area I would raise no objection.

However due to the history of the site I feel we would be best placed to request an arb statement regarding the proposed changes and if there are any tree constraints.

Thanks

J