

To Madam,

Did you know I'm only seven years old and I am a vegetarian, not because of the taste but because of the way I like animals and I do not want them to be extinct! I also have two sisters. Why do you want to build on the field even if it does not belong to you? (Please do not build on the field). Imagine if you were a mouse or a bird and someone was building on your house. How would you feel? Imagine if your house was now destroyed. I like porridge and my food comes from the field and I will not last for long if I don't have any breakfast. Will I?

Bye , Bye
