

FIGURE 17

Illustration of different degrees of architectural integrity and significance between the front elevations and rear elements of Old Manor Farm. Left – Traditional architectural detailing of the workers' cottages as seen from Lower Road; Right - Adapted and extended rear elements of the former farmstead as seen from within the proposed development site