

I'd expect to see an indication of the maximum number of personnel on site at any given time with confirmation that on site car parking facilities will be suitable to prevent any overspill parking occurring on the highway.

Normally there is a supporting written document which confirms what the wheel wash facilities will be, including a commitment to provide additional wheel wash facilities should debris be dragged onto the highway.

Kind Regards,

Chris Hirst
Transport Planner