

View from Harkness Drive at the point it leads into Coraline Grove towards Tempest Avenue

The location of this view is marked on satellite map below, with a red circle in the location this is from and an arrow depicting the way the view is facing. Please note that the original shared drive is obscured from this with the new location able to be seen.

