

This map illustrates a proposed bus route through a residential area in Dublin. The route is marked by a dashed red line with arrows, showing a path that starts near the top left and winds through the area, ending near the bottom right. Key features include:

- Streets: MAUREEN'S WAY, SWISS ROAD, LONDON ROAD, and others.
- Landmarks: St George's Church, Police Station, and various residential buildings.
- Bus Stops: Numerous stops are marked with red and blue circles, each containing a number (e.g., 0450, 1401, 1301, 2301, 2201).
- Infrastructure: A car park, a substation (El Sub Sta), and a garage are also shown.
- Grid: A blue grid is overlaid on the map, likely for reference.
