Comment Reasons:

Comment: I would like to reiterate concerns raised by "concerned resident" regarding parking. There have been considerable problems with Domino Pizza cars, not just parking on double yellow lines but also parking over driveways.

Whilst there are double yellow lines on the left of Kings Road heading away from London Road, these also need to be considered on the right hand side i.e. from the driveway of No.16 to the driveway of No.20, thus avoiding the blind corner, and the possible future fatal collision on this corner.

Please give this consideration or pass my comments on to the correct authority for the painting of traffic restriction lines.

Many Thanks
