Town and Country Planning Act 1990: Section 191 and 192 (as amended by Section 10 of the Planning and Compensation Act 1991)
Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order 2015
Article 39
CERTIFICATE OF LAWFUL USE OR DEVELOPMENT

Havant Borough Council, as Local Planning Authority, certifies that on 16 June 2020 the development described in the First Schedule to this certificate in respect of land described in the Second Schedule and as shown edged in red on the submitted location plan would have been lawful within the meaning of section 192 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended) for the following reason:

The proposed development falls within permitted development allowances as set out in Schedule 2, Part 1, Class E of the Town and Country Planning (General Permitted Development) (England) Order 2015 (as amended).

FIRST SCHEDULE:

This certificate relates to the following development:

Application for Certificate of Lawfulness relating to proposed detached single storey workshop to the rear of dwelling. as described in the written particulars, plans and other documents submitted with your application received on 16 June 2020.

SECOND SCHEDULE:

This certificate relates to land at Keepers House, Kingscroft Lane, Havant, PO9 3JE as shown edged red on the submitted Location Plan received 16 June 2020.

OTHER IMPORTANT INFORMATION:

- (1) This Certificate is issued solely for the purpose of Section 192 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended). It does not relate to any other application that may be required under any other part of the Town and Country Planning Act, the Building Regulations or under any other Act, Regulation, Byelaw or Order where the Council's approval may be needed. For further guidance as to the need for consent under the Building Regulations please phone 023 9244 6571.

- (2) It certifies that the development specified in the First Schedule taking place on land described in the Second Schedule would have been lawful within the meaning of section 192 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended) on the specified date and thus would not have been liable to enforcement action under Part 7 of the 1990 Act on that date.
- (3) The certificate only applies to the extent of the development specified in the First Schedule taking place on land described in the Second Schedule and identified on the submitted location plan. Any development which is materially different from that described or which relates to other land may render the owner/occupier liable to enforcement action under section 172 of the 1990 Act.
- (4) The effect of the certificate is also qualified by the provision in section 192(4) of the 1990 Act (as amended), which states that the lawfulness of a described use or operation is only conclusively presumed where there has been no material change, before the use is instituted or the operations begun, in any of the matter relevant to determining such lawfulness.
- (5) Your attention is drawn to the attached information regarding your right to appeal to the Department for Transport Local Government and the Regions, if you are aggrieved by the Council's decision.

TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACT 1990

NOTIFICATION TO BE SENT TO AN APPLICANT WHEN A LOCAL PLANNING AUTHORITY REFUSE PLANNING PERMISSION OR GRANT IT SUBJECT TO CONDITIONS

- These notes are for information only and do not purport to set out the law on the subject.
- Only the applicant possesses the right of appeal.

Appeals to the Secretary of State

- If you are aggrieved by the decision of your local planning authority to refuse permission for the proposed development or to grant it subject to conditions, then you can appeal to the Secretary of State under section 78 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990.
- If this is a decision on a planning application relating to the same or substantially the same land and development as is already the subject of an enforcement notice and you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision on your application, then you must do so within 28 days of the date of this notice.
- If an enforcement notice is served relating to the same or substantially the same land and development as in your application and if you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision on your application, then you must do so within 28 days of the date of service of the enforcement notice, or within 6 months [12 weeks in the case of a householder appeal] of the date of this notice, whichever period expires earlier.
- If this is a decision to refuse planning permission for a householder application and you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision then you must do so within 12 weeks of the date of this notice.
- If this is a decision to refuse planning permission for a minor commercial application and you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision then you must do so within 12 weeks of the date of this notice.
- If this is a decision to refuse express consent for the display of an advertisement and you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision then you must do so within 8 weeks of the date of receipt of this notice.
- If this is a decision to refuse consent to work on a tree which is subject to a Tree Preservation Order and you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision then you must do so within 28 days of the date of this notice.
- If this is a decision to refuse any other type of application and you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision then you must do so within 6 months of the date of this notice.
- Appeals can be made online at: <https://www.gov.uk/planning-inspectorate>.
If you are unable to access the online appeal form, please contact the Planning Inspectorate to obtain a paper copy of the appeal form on tel: 0303 444 5000.
- The Secretary of State can allow a longer period for giving notice of an appeal but will not normally be prepared to use this power unless there are special circumstances which excuse the delay in giving notice of appeal.
- The Secretary of State need not consider an appeal if it seems to the Secretary of State that the local planning authority could not have granted planning permission for the proposed development or could not have granted it without the conditions they imposed, having regard to the statutory requirements, to the provisions of any development order and to any directions given under a development order.

If you intend to submit an appeal that you would like examined by inquiry, then you must notify the Local Planning Authority and Planning Inspectorate (inquiryappeals@planninginspectorate.gov.uk) at least 10 days before submitting the appeal. Further details are on GOV.UK.
