

The tree species is a Cedar and the works to take place are to remove 3 meters of off the southern side branches that are touching or about to touch the property there. The rest of the tree will remain in tact, it is not a crown reduction, crown lift or crown thinning.