

Trees Statement

In respect of trees on site the application form states that no trees are affected by the development. However, to clarify further the TPO trees are sited away from the main dwelling. The development relates to a first floor side extension and materials would be stored to the front of the site. As such there is no impact on any trees on site.