Dear Christopher and Alice,

My apologies, but I went to send my email to you yesterday afternoon and accidentally deleted it! I had every intention of emailing you again today.

We deal exclusively with venues that are privately owned and let on an exclusive basis only. May I ask if couples have exclusive use of your venue on the day of a wedding?

We would love to work with you and showcase weddings at Tournerbury on our website pending your confirmation that the venue is let exclusively.

The benefits, service provided and costs are covered in the attached document, Getting Started.

Our website www.wedding-venues.co.uk would be an excellent choice of network to promote Tournerbury:

- It is fully interactive and currently attracts over 280,000 unique enquiries per year
- Features over 200 privately owned venues
- Couples can identify venues by location, seating capacity, ceremony license and download e-brochures
- We advertise in national bridal magazines generating a very positive response
- We receive several thousand telephone enquiries per year
- Brides value and benefit from our professional team of trained wedding advisors

Please let me know if you have any questions. If you would like to proceed with advertising on our site, please let me know and I will send the necessary documents to you.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Kind regards
Tania
