

I have noticed that the applicant has made no re-provision in their proposals for development of the site into a supermarket for recycling bins which are currently available and used by local residents. Havant Borough Council waste collection services need to be consulted and the re-siting of the bins need to be considered and proposals agreed in advance of a decision. The absence of recycling bins will create problems such as additional traffic and inconvenience to the local community.