Hi Simon,

Good to catch up with you, glad all is well and many thanks for your bizarre telephone call yesterday, I don't think I've stopped laughing since and I'm glad you could see the funny side of it too. Of all the things I've been accused of doing in my life I never thought I'd be accused of 'moving a heronry' - I wish you had written to me because then I could have framed it !

I'm sorry that you are having your time wasted by a personal vendetta by my neighbours (yet again) but hey ho we all have our crosses to bear and one of mine is my neighbours, although it does beg the question - "At what point do you (NE) turn round to them and say look you can't use a statutory body such as Natural England to harass or vilify someone you don't like on your behalf - it's actually a criminal activity called Slander?"

Anyway, the above aside, Thursday 16th June is currently clear for me - shall we say 10am ? Meet at the stone 'Tournerbury' sign as you come into the woods (you can park on the left hand side), I know you know where you are going but use PO11 9DL in case Alex is using Sat Nav.

Best wishes,

Chris

PS - Hi Hannah - hope all is well for you and work not too stressful, Chris

Dear Christopher Snell,

We have site visit booked with your cousin Cynthia Gray on 19th May at 11:00am at Mengeham. Would it be possible for my colleagues Mr Pearce and Mr Vincent to meet with you at Tournerbury Woods on the afternoon of 19th May at 2:00pm. If this date is not convenient I can supply some alternative dates.

I look forward to hearing from you

Dear Chris and James,

Just to say thank you very much for your hospitality and the discussions we had regarding Tournbury Woods this morning. It was great to meet you both and to see the woods.

I look forward to hearing from you regarding the SMS once you have had a chance to discuss it amongst yourselves. I have pencilled in Monday 20th April 2014 for coming over and doing the ISA (I think that is the date we mentioned, but please do correct me if I have got that incorrect).
