

PROPOSED

Ferry Rd (northern) Elevation
Scale 1:50

0m 1m 2m 3m 4m 5m

projected sign position

Projected sign - 1 off
Scale 1:10

Light blue aluminium panels fitted within a black double sided bull-nosed extrusion frame.
Text is white vinyl and lifebuoy graphic is red and white vinyl which is applied to the panel faces.
Panel hangs from a black steel projecting arm.
Sign is externally illuminated by two black steel troughs fitted with low energy white LEDs.

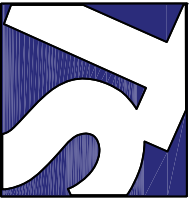

0m 0.5m

Section A-A through the text
Scale 1:5

Section B-B through the text
Scale 1:5

The rendered walls are painted a light blue colour.
The text is signwritten in white.
Graphics of a lifebuoy are signwritten in red and white.
Externally illuminated by a light blue steel trough which is fitted with low energy white LEDs.

0m 0.3m

|                                                                                                                                                                                               |                  |                        |     |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------|------------------------|-----|
|                                                                                                            |                  |                        |     |
| Client: The Ferryboat Inn                                                                                                                                                                     |                  |                        |     |
| Address/Job details                                                                                                                                                                           |                  |                        |     |
| Ferry RdHayling IslandPO11 0DG                                                                                                                                                        |                  |                        |     |
| Proposed Signage                                                                                                                                                                              |                  |                        |     |
| Job No                                                                                                                                                                                        |                  |                        |     |
| Technical SignsFloor 1 - Unit 3Hille Business Centre132 St Albans RoadWatford, Herts, WD24 4AETel: 01923 811999Fax: 01923 811998E-mail: info@technicalsigns.co.uk |                  |                        |     |
| Drawn byDN                                                                                                                                                                                | Date08/01/20 | Drawing No596273-5 | Rev |
| ScaleAs specified (A3)                                                                                                                                                                    |                  |                        |     |