Details of the pre-application advice received

We have apologised that we were unaware we required permission for the decking. We understand the occupier of the caravan in question discussed the construction of the decking with the owner of the adjacent bungalow and no objection was raised to it being the same as the decking on the adjacent caravan pitch (on the right) and it was only once the decking was nearing completion that concerns were raised. Subsequently trellis and bamboo has been planted which has died back, but which will re-establish itself in the new growing season. It was thought that the neighbour had agreed with the caravan occupier that the current screening would be acceptable, but since objection has been raised since then, we have proposed a more substantial screening scheme. We have engaged with the enforcement officer for pre application advice on how to proceed and are duely keen to regularize the situation.
