All offers subject to availability and may be withdrawn at any time. We cannot guarantee the availability of any domain name until registration is confirmed by the governing body. NicNames also cannot be held responsible for any errors, delays or omissions during the registration (or failure of registration) or during the period that the client holds the name. NicNames by registering the Domain Name on your behalf do not investigate whether you are entitled to register or have any rights to the Domain Name. By registering the Domain Name NicNames do not claim that you have any rights in the name comprised in the Domain Name. NicNames are not the authorising body for your use of the Domain Name in the course of your business and therefore accept no liability current or future for any legal challenges made against you for the use of the Domain Name. All prices are plus VAT at the standard rate. Please note that all domains carry a two-yearly charge. NicNames do not cancel or refund any services that contain a personalised domain name. Where you have indicated that you are paying a monthly fee by Direct Debit then NicNames will collect payment using the original credit card details until you return the Direct Debit. NicNames will automatically renew this service each year after the initial one year contract period unless the client notifies us in writing at least 60 days prior to the end of the contract period. You acknowledge that if we do not hear from you NicNames will automatically raise & forward an invoice for a further 12 months service. These terms do not affect your statutory rights. For full terms and conditions please go to www.nicnames.co.uk/nicnameterms.htm
