- H. View from the East driveway to Woods Cottage looking south, (heading towards Woods Cottage 'Harbour lawn'). The marquee can be seen ahead and the car parking to the right hand-side of the photograph.

- I. View from 'Piccadilly Circus' (see note below) facing south down the East driveway to Woods Cottage. Domestic greensward to the east.

Note: The applicant's grandparents originally lived in London before moving to Hayling Island in the early 1930's and this junction of roads in the TWE has always historically been referred to as 'Piccadilly Circus' and the track / road heading west from it (see photo below) known as 'Piccadilly' in the Snell family.

- J. View facing south west taken from 'Piccadilly Circus' showing Woods Cottage East driveway on the left hand-side and 'Piccadilly' on the right hand-side of the photograph. The southernmost part of Tournier Bury Wood (also known as Tournierbury Wood) is directly to the north of this, behind the photographer. This is the north eastern most point of Woods Cottage environs.

- K. View facing south east showing Piccadilly on the left hand-side and rough lawn areas to the south. This is the most north-western part of Woods Cottage environs which is delineated by Piccadilly.

- L. View facing east across the western most parts of Woods Cottage greensward to Woods Cottage. Woods Cottage can be seen in the distance in the centre of the photograph, with the stretch tent of the deck to the north of it and the marquee further north on the left-hand side of the photograph.

- M. View facing north on the sea wall track, Woods Cottage western most greensward can be seen in the distance in the centre of the photograph, and the marquee in the distance to the north.

- N. View of shingle spit protruding into 'My Lord's Pond' (Mengham Rythe) to the south of Woods Cottage which is used for overnighting the applicants' boat and launching canoes and kayaks from.
