I am writing to advise you that for the following reason the Council is unable to determine your applications I am writing to request agreement to the period of determination being extended under Article 34 of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order 2015.

Reason:

To provide additional time to submit a further Flood Risk Assessment, to be considered by the Environment Agency and to then determine the application.

To extend the period please return, signed and dated, the slip below or alternatively please confirm by email within the next 5 working days. If you wish to discuss this request further, please contact me.
