

Heritage & DAS

The applicant spoke with the LA who advised to submit a drawing and then a site visit would be undertaken. This application is to remove part of an external wall, that has become an internal wall from a previous extension.