

We should add that we have already suffered noise disruption from this venue during the summer of 2018. We trust that the views of affected homes/persons will be taken into consideration.