

As you can see in this photo I have labelled where we will prune back to and have applied for up to two meters, the tree at the back is a large Ash not part of the application.