

Good morning Emma,

I hope you are doing well.

I had a look at the application and the only concerns I have is with the suitability of the chalet to be habited year round in terms of housing standard (thermal insulation in particular) however, I could not see any description of the structure or ability to retain energy within (particularly in cold weather (U value))

I hope this helps

Kind regards

Laurent