

Hi Bee

I've had a look at the noise mitigation report provided and can advise that I am happy this will suffice, for the proposed electrical substation and enclosure. I also note that this is a retrospective application.