Dear Tina - many thanks for your email - no problem and many thanks for changing the report and re-publishing it - I met Bianca Carr yesterday and said that we had withdrawn our objection to their extension and she was happy to confirm that they would either supply us or fund 3 compassion climbing roses and that the fence would not be taken down as she understood our concern that when fences were taken down and re-erected they never looked as good as they often bowed and looked shabby and that in taking them down the only solution was to put up a new like fence erected by a fencing company.

It was good for both of us to conclude the planning phase in an amicable manner - we appreciate your help in this planning phase.

Kindest regards

John
