

David if the deliveries can be conditioned to be outside opening hours (subject to planning amenity conditions which I suggest should be not before 0700 or after 24.00), then these spaces can be counted by the planning authority in applying their parking standards

Peter J Marshall BSc MCIHT
Development Engineer