

Flood Risk Assessment

The property and surrounding land is classed as a flood risk. However, the Property and surrounding land has to the best of my knowledge never flooded and the home insurance we have currently is available and affordable. The insurance will cover the buildings proposed and after taking advice from an architect, we are confident no further action is needed at this point.

