

With respect to the application above Jamie has the following comments:

The proposed amendment does not appear to move the garage any closer to the tree as such the original requirement for a tree protection plan and method statement is required and can be conditioned.

Therefore we have no objections to this scheme in Arboricultural terms.

Many thanks

Stuart Heasman
Arboriculture