

Thank you for consulting us on the above application.

Our previous response stated 'The proposals for surface water drainage meet the current standards/best practice in relation to surface water drainage however confirmation is required on who will be undertaking the maintenance of the different drainage elements.'

We are still awaiting confirmation on who will undertake the maintenance of the different drainage elements and as such, our response remains unchanged

Flood & Water Management