Care home residents rejoice in the transformative sound of music

Residents and guests at Wimborne Care Home in Hayling Island enjoyed a afternoon of grins, laughter and music as they were joined by the amazing Memory Choir of Hampshire, who have started choirs all around the south coast.

Their mission is to show people the transformative power of music and its ability to create a harmonious connection between individuals and their well-being. This choir is created to support those living in the community with dementia or anyone that is supporting others that are effected.

Councillor Peter Wade the deputy Mayor of Havant joined in on the inaugural choir session for the whole community on Hayling Island.

The hospitality team at the home provided a spread of homemade cakes and cookies for the community and residents to enjoy with a hot tea and coffee as a treat where everyone sat around chatting and reminiscing over the wonderful memories the songs brought back.

General Manager, Sarah Peach

said: "Our residents and guests had a wonderful day singing along and being part of this amazing choir that makes a difference. We do our best to provide a wide range of activities and entertainment with our fantastic Senior Activity Coordinator Zoe at Wimborne as part of the lifestyle enrichment programme for residents, and this was one of our favourites."

The next choir practice, at which everyone is welcome, is scheduled for 16th May.
