

I am writing to object to the planning application for a mobile take away in Queens Street.
I feel it is totally out of character in an inappropriate position.
We have a lot of food outlets in the Town already.