

The trees are within the curtilage of my property and are of poor quality, with at least one of them dead. A local search has revealed that none of them have TPOs attached, so I am intending to remove them prior to construction of the extension, once permission has been granted.

