

I am objecting to the northney tea rooms trying to get the planning application they were refused last time resubmitted on the same reason as u objected last time