Comment Reasons:

Comment: This is the second comment I'm making after reading all the objections.

It is very clear that residents are strongly opposed to the new developments.

One thing that has not been mentioned is the affect to peoples Mental Health. I've see Hayling change over the last 70 years it is now unrecognisable.

People need open spaces and all things that are associated with them. Residents come to Live here for just that and do not expect their lives to be made stressful turning what used to be a quite pleasant place to live into a nightmare with all that comes with overdevelopment everything that has already been mentioned in the other comments I have read.

Everyone I have spoken to are extremely upset not one person has been positive about any of the planned developments.

Stop and think what all these people are feeling and how it will affect their health and well-being
