Comment Reasons:

Comment: My neighbours say it's futile making any comments about this development, as historically with regard to planning permission, what ever the college wants, the college gets. It is interesting that this very car park wasn't seen as surplus to requirement, when they wanted a full sized 3G football pitch, which now sits over our local green space. Obviously the developers pay a team of people to make their projects happen, in this case by means which seem misleading, I've lived here for 12 years, their claims just don't add up. This car park is used. Quotas, levy's, extra revenue, I realise are of higher priority than local residents.
