

211102 – Sayers – 114 Sea Front, Hayling Island
Ecosystem Services Actions	Policy SD2 criterion
Rainwater from the extension will be connected to the existing rain water network which discharges to the existing soakaways.	A, C and D
Rainwater from the extension will be connected to the existing rain water network which discharges to the existing soakaways.	a) Sustainably manage land and water environments;
The existing extension is to be extended to match the existing style with rendered walls and tiled roofs	b) Protect and provide more, better and joined up natural habitats;
The existing dwelling and proposed extension will have no impact on water quality.	c) Conserve water resources and improve water quality;
The existing dwelling is to remain unaffected with the extension being constructed on existing building footprint area so will have no impact on flooding issues	d) Manage and mitigate the risk of flooding;
The existing dwelling is to remain unaffected with the extension being constructed on existing building footprint area so will have no impact on flooding issues	e) Improve the National Park's resilience to, and mitigation of, climate change;
The existing dwelling is to remain unaffected with the extension being constructed on existing building footprint area so will have no impact on loss of planting areas	f) Increase the ability to store carbon through new planting or other means;
The existing dwelling is to remain unaffected with the extension being constructed on existing building footprint area so will have no impact on soil enhancement	g) Conserve and enhance soils;
The application is for a domestic extension, so this does not apply	h) Support the sustainable production and use of food, forestry and raw materials;
The application is for a domestic extension, so this does not apply	i) Reduce levels of pollution;
The application is for a domestic extension, so this does not apply	j) Improve opportunities for peoples' health and wellbeing;
The application is for a barn renovation, so this does not apply	k) Provide opportunities for access to the natural and cultural resources which contribute to the special qualities.