Stance: Customer objects to the Planning Application

Comment Reasons:

Comment: I object to this misleading planning application. Firstly the claim that this car park is surplus to requirement and has been closed for the last six months, is untrue. It is required and operational. Even the rep admitted during the online consultation that, yes, only a small area of the car park had been fenced off. This area has nearly 600 car parking spaces, with a proposal to replace only 75 of them. Where do they propose all the staff, students and visitors will park? Clearly the same places they already park, especially on College open days and football tournaments, the local residential roads. Adequate replacement parking would need to be provided way ahead of the development being started.
