

Dear Mr Ellis

The changes to the application are insignificant and make no difference to my objection to the applications, and all the reasons remain extant. A less appropriate place for a new development is hard to find.