Comment:Hi ,

I am not a complainant of the extension - but have a query on the planning application

I would like to understand if the extension is going to be attached directly to my extension ..i live at number 24 and have not been directly consulted about this ..i was told an extension was going up but if it is being attached directly to my property - should i not be directly consulted about this and i presume i have rights as per party wall act where by the applicant for planning permission will need to pay for a surveyor to act on my behalf ?
