TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACT 1990 (AS AMENDED)
TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING (GENERAL PERMITTED DEVELOPMENT) (ENGLAND)
ORDER 2015

Refusal of Details

Application Number: APP/21/01231

Site Address: Verge at, Bartons Road, Havant, adjacent Lynch Close, Havant

Proposal: ~~Prior Approval Application for the installation of 1No 17.5m monopole, 2No antenna, 3 No cabinets and development ancillary thereto.~~

Further to your application received on 12 November 2021, Havant Borough Council, as Local Planning Authority, having determined that prior approval is required for the siting and appearance of the above development, Refuses the siting and appearance of the proposed development for the following reasons:

- 1 The proposed development, by reason of height and siting would appear as a visually intrusive and incongruous feature in the street scene. It has not been sited or designed in a way that would minimise the impact of the development and, as such, would result in an adverse impact upon the visual amenities of the street scene and the appearance of the locality. In addition, the occupiers of nearby properties would be adversely affected by their awareness of the incongruous appearance of the development within the street scene.

As such, the proposed development is contrary to Policies CS1 & CS16 of the Havant Borough Local Plan (Core Strategy) March 2011, Policy E1 of the submission version of the Havant Borough Local Plan and the National Planning Policy Framework 2021.

In coming to its decision the Council considered the plans and other documents submitted with your application and the saved policies of the Havant District Wide Local Plan 1996-2011.

Other Important Information:

- (1) This notice only relates to the decision of Havant Borough Council as Local Planning Authority under the Town and Country Planning (General Permitted Development) Order 1995 (as amended). TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACT 1990

NOTIFICATION TO BE SENT TO AN APPLICANT WHEN A LOCAL PLANNING AUTHORITY REFUSE PLANNING PERMISSION OR GRANT IT SUBJECT TO CONDITIONS

- These notes are for information only and do not purport to set out the law on the subject.
- Only the applicant possesses the right of appeal.

Appeals to the Secretary of State

- If you are aggrieved by the decision of your local planning authority to refuse permission for the proposed development or to grant it subject to conditions, then you can appeal to the Secretary of State under section 78 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990.
- If this is a decision on a planning application relating to the same or substantially the same land and development as is already the subject of an enforcement notice and you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision on your application, then you must do so within 28 days of the date of this notice.
- If an enforcement notice is served relating to the same or substantially the same land and development as in your application and if you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision on your application, then you must do so within 28 days of the date of service of the enforcement notice, or within 6 months [12 weeks in the case of a householder appeal] of the date of this notice, whichever period expires earlier.
- If this is a decision to refuse planning permission for a householder application and you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision then you must do so within 12 weeks of the date of this notice.
- If this is a decision to refuse planning permission for a minor commercial application and you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision then you must do so within 12 weeks of the date of this notice.
- If this is a decision to refuse express consent for the display of an advertisement and you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision then you must do so within 8 weeks of the date of receipt of this notice.
- If this is a decision to refuse consent to work on a tree which is subject to a Tree Preservation Order and you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision then you must do so within 28 days of the date of this notice.
- If this is a decision to refuse any other type of application and you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision then you must do so within 6 months of the date of this notice.
- Appeals can be made online at: <https://www.gov.uk/planning-inspectorate>.
If you are unable to access the online appeal form, please contact the Planning Inspectorate to obtain a paper copy of the appeal form on tel: 0303 444 5000.
- The Secretary of State can allow a longer period for giving notice of an appeal but will not normally be prepared to use this power unless there are special circumstances which excuse the delay in giving notice of appeal.
- The Secretary of State need not consider an appeal if it seems to the Secretary of State that the local planning authority could not have granted planning permission for the proposed development or could not have granted it without the conditions they imposed, having regard to the statutory requirements, to the provisions of any development order and to any directions given under a development order.

If you intend to submit an appeal that you would like examined by inquiry, then you must notify the Local Planning Authority and Planning Inspectorate (inquiryappeals@planninginspectorate.gov.uk) at least 10 days before submitting the appeal. Further details are on GOV.UK.
