

Arboricultural Officer comments: As there is already block paving within the root protection area (RPA) of the off site Oak tree I have no objection to it being replaced however there should be no increase in excavation to that which has already been undertaken previously. The new area of block paving is outside of the RPA therefore I have no objection.

Thanks

Maria

Maria Stewart
Arboricultural Officer