

The map displays a residential area with a grid of streets and property boundaries. Key streets include Maytree Road, Crescent, Sandy Field, Hart Plain Avenue, and Dresden Drive. The map is overlaid with a network of red and blue lines, likely representing proposed or existing infrastructure. Numerous red and blue circles with numbers are scattered across the map, indicating specific points of interest or survey data. The map also shows building footprints, a 'Sub Sta' (substation), and 'The Hart Plain Church'.
