

A – Snowy Mespilus 'Robin Hill'

- A small tree of American origin with a narrow erect crown.
- Oval leaves, coppery-red and silky when young.
- In Autumn colours up with rich reds, yellows and orange tints.
- Covered with white blossom in early Spring.
- Followed in Summer with distinct red fruits.
- Anticipate 2.5m radial crown spread and 8m height in 25 years.

B – Sargents ‘Rancho’ Cherry

- A small tree with an upright fastigate form.
- It flowers in abundance during the Spring.
- The flowers are larger and darker pink than a standard Cherry.
- Colours up well in the Autumn.
- Anticipate 2m radial crown spread and 7m height in 25 years.

