

Formal Highway Response

The Highway Authority has no adverse comment to the principle of this application. However, the whole of the front garden is to be hardened to provide three right angle parking spaces assessed by means of a proposed 10 metre dropped kerb which removes on street parking and the Planning Authority may feel that this has an adverse impact on the amenity of the area.