

This unit has been vacant since April 2012. It is a prime retail position and used to be Co- Op travel (who were taken over by Thomas Cooks hence the closure as Thomas Cooks already had a branch in Waterloooville)

Although this site is ideally suited to retail the absence of retailer taking on the property, have a betting shop there is better than an on going empty unit.

Betfred are moving from the southern end of Waterloooville to this new position so they would be still the only betting shop in the town centre.

Kind regards

Jeff Crate
Senior Economic Development Officer
Havant Borough Council
Public Service Plaza