Dear Mr Eaves

I am writing with apologies as I have made a factual error on the application form in respect to the number of parking spaces. As the drive is gravel and the spaces are not marked out I did not appreciate the number of spaces available. However, you will see from the drawings approved in 2007 that there is in fact room for 11 cars.

I trust this doesn't cause you any difficulties. My apologies again for this error.

Kind regards

Alex Munday
