Comment Details

Commenter Type: Consultation modified

Stance: Customer made comments neither objecting to or supporting the Planning Application

Comment Reasons:

Comment: This appears to be a very contrived subdivision of the building, trying to stay within the profile of the previously allowed application at appeal. From the front it does not appear as 2 dwellings with the entrance to the second semi on the side elevation.

I would like to see a plan which sets out the revised access to the site as two dwellings and position of allocated parking for each dwelling.
